

Fest~I Cult 2.2 INTERCULTURAL FILM FESTIVAL

January 27 and February 3, 2007

Islands and Oceans Visitor Center Auditorium

12 pm – 5 pm each day - Drop in any time

All donations support the AFS-Homer student foreign exchange program

This festival is a scaled down version of the “Fest-i Kult 2 AFSGD Ankara Intercultural Amateur Film Festival” shown in Ankara, Turkey Nov. 24-30, 2006. The festival is brought to Homer by Mert Anameric (AFSGD Ankara), an exchange student from Turkey to Homer in 2000-2001.

The festival will include shorts, longs, animation, (and more,) from producers in 10 different countries. All films will be in English, or subtitled.

The goal of the festival is to raise funds to support foreign exchange in Homer, Alaska. All proceeds from the festival will be used to scholarship students from Homer who choose to participate in the AFS foreign exchange program.

The AFS Volunteers of Ankara, Turkey who have organized this film festival add the following:

“To be able to understand other cultures we need to live with them. Since we do not have the opportunity to live in every culture, we choose to organize a film festival. We believe that films can reflect culture, and if we know and try to understand other cultures, the world will be a better place to live. With this idea as the catalyst, the team organized and presented its first festival in 2005. Sharing the festival outside of Turkey is one more step to promoting ‘intercultural understanding.’ We hope that we are helping to create a more PEACEFUL WORLD.”
